Councilman Surrency no comments.

Councilman Zapolski thanked Mrs. Batten for her words regarding the efforts of the Council, Mayor and the city administration. It is nice to hear.

Councilman Spence stated the presentation and the certificates given out for cancer, was a good thought on Council President’s part. A friend of his who recently passed away liked pink flamingos, and he wore a headband with pink flamingos in memory of her.

Pres. Lugardo-Hemple appreciated the cancer survivors who were here today, more were planning to be here, but they have good days and bad days, and they couldn’t make it. Thanked Administrator for the budget presentation, it was very informative. Reminded people that Boo-at-the-Zoo is Saturday, and invited everyone to attend. Apologized for meeting, this is her first experience running the meeting which included Budget resolutions. Invited the public to get involved, talk to your family and neighbors, spread the word of the good things the city is doing for everyone.

Councilman Spence stated that Bridgeton Main Street is starting a partnership with Bridgeton Area Amish Market. And they will be having a harvest fest, and invited everyone to check out what they will be doing.

There being no other business to come before Council it was moved by Mr. Spence and second by Mr. Zapolski to adjourn the meeting which motion was carried.

Pres. Lugardo-Hemple adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary L. Kimble
Deputy Clerk
