Councilman Michael Zapolski, Sr.
Council President Edwards

Also in attendance:
Mayor Albert Kelly
Administrator Dr. Stephanie Bush-Baskette
Solicitor Rebecca J. Bertram
Municipal Clerk Kathleen L. Keen

Mayor Kelly addressed Council regarding the CY2018 Budget. He stated the goal of the Administration is to meet the needs of the residents and businesses by introducing a realistic budget that provides services they require as well as take into account the financial challenges faced by the city. The proposed budget has a .067 tax rate increase that equates to $45.22 per year on the average home. Mayor Kelly said there were adjustments made to operating cost, delays in purchasing vehicles and hiring staff, and shared services entered into with surrounding municipalities. He stated the city has more shared services agreements than any other communities in Cumberland, Salem, and Gloucester Counties.

The Administrator then addressed Council while using a power point presentation explaining the workings of the various department within the city. She spoke of Vital Statistics, Code Enforcement, Construction, Municipal Court, Water & Sewer, etc.

Next Public Works Superintendent Dellaquila spoke of major needs for Public Works; mainly a new street sweeper, due to the age of the current sweeper and being compliant with Storm Water regulations. He then discussed a road program utilized for much needed improvements to city streets, and the recent funding received from a DOT grant.

Fire Chief Bowen discussed training, maintenance of the fire station, and turn out gear. He spoke of the cost savings of remounting ambulances, and the need for security and fencing for the employees.

Police Captain Battavio spoke of the PAL Program, juvenile policing, and lunch with a cop, body cameras, the vehicle fleet and the police mobile sub-station.

Development & Planning Director Rabago stated the Wawa project is moving forward, and the mobile food truck program will run again this year. He spoke of the food specialization center, the Nail House, CDBG, demolitions, and housing.

CFO Lake explained the budget process, showing comparison charts for 2017-2018, what the tax rate is for 2018, and how the percentages are broken down between the city, school, and county. She discussed water/sewer revenues, and the consistency of the surplus used each year.

Lastly, the Administrator thanked the entire staff for their continued daily hard work, stating all departments of the city are “doing a lot with very little.”
